22nd Hospice New Zealand Palliative Care Conference

22nd Hospice New Zealand Palliative Care Conference

14-16 September 2016

The Langham, Auckland, New Zealand

What matters most?

When time is short, we want to do what matters most. The 22nd Hospice NZ Palliative Care conference will challenge each delegate to consider what matters from a range of perspectives. What matters most to patients, to their families, to carers and to our communities when it comes to end of life care? What matters to us most personally? Speakers will provide frameworks, tools, experience and inspiration to help us plan, provide and measure our services to deliver what matters most.

Registration and programme information is attached. For more details and information about how to register for the conference, please visit the Hospice New Zealand webpage.

Maximising Success: How Positive Psychology Can Help You To Help Young People Maximise Their Potential

Maximising Success: How Positive Psychology Can Help You To Help Young People Maximise Their Potential with Lucy Hone

This seminar will help anyone who teaches or works with young people, to focus on possibilities rather than problems. Positive psychology is the study of topics as diverse as happiness, optimism, subjective wellbeing, and personal growth. It underpins the whole field of 'life coaching' and as such is a very useful skill set for pastoral care, mentoring, academic counselling, teachers, and youth work in general.

Helping Young People Cope with Stress and Anxiety

Helping Young People Cope with Stress and Anxiety

with Dr Melanie Woodfield

One of the most common challenges to young people's emotional health is stress.

Childhood and adolescence can be a stressful time: managing expectations, friendships, life cycle transitions, family changes and future plans can take its toll on a young person's psychological wellbeing.

If you're involved in educating or supporting children or adolescents, chances are you're regularly encountering stressed or anxious kids.

Hold Me Tight Weekend Workshop for Couples

With Sarah and Cary Hayward, Marion Wade and Ian Brewer, the educational workshop provides practical ways for couples to improve their relationship.

As a participant, you will learn about the language of emotion and how to use this language to effectively connect with, and support one another.

You will gain an understanding about how your brain influences your behaviour, and how to turn negative cycles of interaction into positive cycles that support and nourish your relationship. For enquiries and to register, contact Ian: 021 140 7218, wadebrew@actrix.co.nz
