New Zealand Association of Counsellors

Application for Provisional Membership

NZAC Accredited Counselling Education Programme

To be eligible to become a Provisional Member of NZAC you need to:

Be a person of good character who:

1. Has completed either an Aotearoa New Zealand Bachelor of Counselling (360 credits) or a Master in Counselling (240 credits) or is a current student in a Master in Counselling programme who has completed 200 hours counselling practice and 20 hours of supervision.
2. Agrees to work within the NZAC Code of Ethics and to be accountable to the Association while working towards Member status.

Please note:

1. Applications are accepted at any time of the year.
2. This form is valid until 30 November 2019. All decisions made are subject to a satisfactory Police Report which may take approximately 3 months.
3. If your application meets all requirements the Membership Committee will recommend to the National Executive that Provisional Membership status be granted.
4. The information provided in your application will be kept on file until you become a Full Member or you resign your membership. Personal contact details will be used to send you material (newsletters, updates etc) from the National Office or from delegated representatives of NZAC (e.g. Branch Secretaries).
5. NZAC Provisional Member status will be held for 5 years from date of confirmation. If holders of Provisional Member status have not upgraded to full Member status at the end of the 5-year period their Provisional Member status will cease.
6. The steps for upgrade to member begin once you are granted Provisional Member status – not when you complete your counsellor education programme.
7. The supervisor must be a full Member of NZAC or similar professional body, who has been a Member for three years and who has been the candidate's supervisor for 12 months. A minimum of 20 hours of individual supervision sessions is required before application.

Information to be provided

A letter from your Education Provider to confirm that you have met the current minimum requirements for Provisional Member status to NZAC must be submitted with this application.

If you have any personal disclosure statements or other advertising material such as business cards, please enclose copies.

If you are not a New Zealand Citizen please provide evidence of either New Zealand Residency or a valid New Zealand Work Visa.

Vetting Service

Request and Consent Form

This Police vetting form is in two parts. Section 1 is the Evidence of Identity and Section 2 is the Request and Consent Form. In Section 1 the New Zealand Police require that you get a Trusted Referee* to check your identity against an appropriate form of identity. Section 2 is for you to read and complete.

Section 1: EVIDENCE OF IDENTITY (ID)

for further information, see <http://www.dia.govt.nz/Resource-material-Evidence-of-Identity-Standard-Index>

I confirm that the identity of the applicant has been checked as follows:

I

have sighted the ID documents below, and verified the photo against the applicant in person (mark box)

Primary ID document (e.g. passport, original birth certificate, firearms license etc see link above)
and

Another form of ID (e.g. driver licence, 18+ card, Community Services Card, etc see link above)
and

One of the above must be photographic – confirm comparison made and, if applicable

Evidence of name change where names differ (e.g. marriage/civil union certificate, statutory declaration, etc)

[*a trusted referee must be over 16, and not be related, or a partner/spouse, or a co-resident of the applicant, and be either a person of standing in the community (e.g. registered professional, religious or community leader, Police employee) or registered with the Approved Agency.

The trusted referee must:

sign and date the copies of identity documents, and endorse each of them appropriately e.g.

“I have sighted the original version of this document”

“I have sighted the original version of this document and I have compared the photographic image with

[name of applicant]

and confirm they appear the same person.”

provide his or her name and contact details.

CONSENT TO DISCLOSURE (for a New Zealand Police Vet Check)

- for further information, see <http://www.police.govt.nz/advice/businesses-and-organisations/vetting>
- I acknowledge and understand as follows:
1. The information about me that NZ Police may consider relevant to my application and release in vetting comprises any conviction history and, for certain agencies, infringement/demerit reports; and it may include other information such as active charges and warrants to arrest, any information received or obtained by NZ Police, and any interaction I have had with NZ Police in any context (including family violence), even where I have not been charged, or charges are withdrawn, or I have been acquitted (not guilty) of a charge, or I have been discharged without conviction.
 2. Any conviction history will be released in accordance with the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004; this means that, if I am 'eligible' for clean slate (e.g. no convictions for 7 years, never been to prison, no convictions for specified sexual offending, etc – see section 7 of the Act):
 - a) my criminal record of convictions will not be disclosed; but
 - b) if the role for which I have applied is an exception to the clean slate scheme (e.g. predominantly involving care and protection of a child or young person), my criminal record of convictions will be disclosed.
 3. Where relevant information is subject to statutory or Court-ordered name suppression or prohibitions on disclosure, or other constraints on disclosure such as expectations of confidentiality or the protection of active criminal investigations or the safety of individuals, NZ Police may issue an alternative vetting result stating the existence of relevant non-disclosable information, without details.
 4. Where new information is obtained by NZ Police after the completion of my Police vet, NZ Police may disclose this information to the Approved Agency, and where appropriate to the Vulnerable Children Act Exemptions Administrator, if the information is considered relevant to the purpose of the Police vet.
 5. The personal information I provide in this form is being collected for vetting purposes, and may also be used for the purpose of updating NZ Police records.
 6. I may withdraw this consent, prior to Police's disclosure of the vetting result, by notifying the Approved Agency who will immediately notify NZ Police to cease the vetting process (any fee remains payable by the Approved Agency).
 7. I am entitled to access the vetting result released to the Approved Agency and seek correction of Police information about me in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993 by making a request to the 'Approved Agency' in the first instance.
 8. No later than twelve months after the release of the vetting result, the Approved Agency will securely dispose of this consent form and copies of identification documents, as well as the vetting result released by NZ Police, unless a longer retention period is required by legislation applying to the Approved Agency.
 9. The information I have provided in this form relates to me and is correct.

Applicant's Authorisation

I have read and understood the information above

I authorise NZ Police to disclose any personal information it considers relevant to my application (as described above) to the Approved Agency making this request for the purpose of assessing my suitability.
