

Non-Active Policy

Non-Active Status

Non-active status means that the counsellor is not practising either paid or voluntarily, in any way in any counselling-related field.

DEFINITION OF COUNSELLING PRACTICE

Counselling practice is defined under the Code of Ethics as follows:

'... This Code applies to all NZAC Members and Provisional Members in the full range of their professional practices. Professional practice may include work in roles of: counsellor, supervisor, therapist, trainer, educator, researcher, advocate, mediator, consultant, manager, coach, community worker, group facilitator, mentor, psychotherapist and spiritual advisor.

The generic terms "counsellor" and "counselling" apply to all professional roles undertaken by members...'

General Information:

1. Membership status of non-active counsellors is to be maintained but flagged as Non-Active in the National Office database.
2. Non-active status is granted on an Annual basis. Each year the counsellor must sign Section B of the Annual Declaration and send in the non-active subscription.
3. If a complaint is made when a counsellor is non-active, NZAC deals with the matter as for a Member or Provisional Member as appropriate.
4. During non-active status the counsellor may not participate in any NZAC roles (e.g. Executive, Committee, Branch Committee, Interview Panel).
5. Returning to Active Status requires completion of a Police Vetting form.

Returning to active status within 5 years

Members Section: All options require completion of a Police Vetting form.

Option 1
