Counselling, Confidentiality and Privacy

Confidentiality and Privacy are major considerations for all health professionals. The Privacy Act has had a major update with a new Privacy Act which came into force on 1 December 2020.

In this interactive and practical seminar you will learn about key features of the Privacy Act 2020:

Inter-relationship of privacy and confidentiality;

Changes to collection of personal information
Principles;

A new privacy principle: what this means for personal information to be shared overseas;

Requests for access to personal information;

Data breach notifications;

Increased Privacy Commissioner powers;

Resolving claims.

This seminar is led by Kathryn Dalziel, Barrister, Walker Street Chambers.

Kathryn has been practising in privacy law for 28 years and has been advising counsellors and other health practitioners on confidentiality and privacy throughout that time. She is a highly experienced seminar leader. The session will be practical with helpful tips and some humour thrown in throughout the seminar!
