

Contributor Information

Kathie Crocket is an associate professor and Director of Counsellor Education at the University of Waikato, Hamilton.

Email: kcrocket@waikato.ac.nz

Elmarie Kotzé is an educational psychologist and senior lecturer in the Counsellor Education programme at the University of Waikato, Hamilton. She has led a number of significant community research projects, including in schools.

Email: elmariek@waikato.ac.nz

Robert Manthei is retired professor of (Counsellor) Education from the University of Canterbury and a Life Member of NZAC.

Email: bob.manthei@canterbury.ac.nz

Irene Paton is a counsellor and supervisor in private practice in Christchurch working with individuals and couples, and providing counselling through the Family Court, ACC, and EAP schemes. She is a Mediator for the new Family Court process, and is Co-Director of Optimum Solutions. Irene has been a member of NZAC since 1985 and has been involved on the National Executive and the Ethics Committee.

Email: irene@perspectives.net.nz

Mira Peter, a Senior Research Fellow in the Wilf Malcolm Institute of Educational Research (WMIER) at the University of Waikato, is an experienced human-behaviour researcher with special skills in scientific experimental design, survey development, statistics and data analysis. Mira collaborates with staff within the Faculty of Education and across faculties to develop projects and strategies for examining teaching, assessment and learning, collecting education data, statistical data analysis, and liaising with the Ministry of Education and other stakeholders.

Email: mpeter@waikato.ac.nz

Katrina M. Temitope is a student undertaking her Master of Arts degree in the School of Psychology at Massey University, Albany Campus on Auckland's North Shore.

Email: katfishnz@yahoo.com

Mei Wah M. Williams is a senior lecturer in the School of Psychology at Massey University, Albany Campus on Auckland's North Shore.

Email address: M.W.Williams@massey.ac.nz