

Contributor Information

Peter Bray is a Senior Lecturer and Programme Leader for Counselling in the Faculty of Education and Social Work at the University of Auckland. He has edited a number of collections of work which reflect his developing interest in client positioning, the positive aspects of crisis and trauma, and spirituality.

Email: p.bray@auckland.ac.nz

Christine Yang Dong is Research Manager at Lifeline Aotearoa.

Email: christined@lifeline.org.nz

Alieh Haghghi is a Research Assistant at Lifeline Aotearoa.

Email: aliehh@lifeline.org.nz

Karen Himiona (Ngāpuhi, Ngāti Kahu, Te Aupōuri, and Te Rarawa) recently completed her MHS research at the University of Auckland examining the role that loss and grief play among substance users. She is a senior drug and alcohol counsellor at Community Alcohol and Drug Services in Manukau. Karen has a keen interest in improving effective engagement and treatment for all substance users experiencing loss and grief issues, including Māori and other indigenous cultures.

Email: karen.himiona@waitematadhb.govt.nz

Peter Huggard is a Senior Lecturer in Social and Community Health in the Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences, University of Auckland. His teaching and research interests are in the areas of health professional self-care, vicarious trauma and resilience; palliative care; loss, grief and bereavement; addiction studies; and therapeutic communication.

Email: p.huggard@auckland.ac.nz

Robert Manthei is a retired Professor of (Counsellor) Education at the University of Canterbury and a Life Member of NZAC.

Email: bob.manthei@canterbury.ac.nz

Carnette Pulma is a Research Assistant at Lifeline Aotearoa.

Email: carnetteP@lifeline.org.nz

Teresa Jibin Xu is a Research Assistant at Lifeline Aotearoa.

Email: teresax@lifeline.org.nz

Kelly Zhong is Lead Research Assistant at Lifeline Aotearoa.

Email: kellyz@lifeline.org.nz