

NZAC is committed to honouring our Te Tiriti
relationship with Tangata
Whenua

THE GOALS:

To be recognised by all stakeholders as a leading counselling representative body.

To position counselling alongside other mental health professions.

We'll focus on 3 areas...

and 4 key projects...

to create at 30/6/21

Continue to:

- Position NZAC so that key stakeholders see it as a credible and respected professional body
- Promote NZAC effectively so all key stakeholders know and respect the organisation as a counselling profession leader
- Protect NZAC's reputation and position with stakeholders

- Push for better access to SGCs for ALL school students
- Present a framework for effective Te Tiriti based governance
- Consult members on registration/regulation
- Develop a plan to properly capitalise on mental health awareness week

BAU activities are:

- External marketing
- Member satisfaction survey

- ALL students have good access to SGCs (on and off-school site)
 - A review of NZAC's governance model has been completed and decisions made
 - Key stakeholders agree counselling is 'valuable and an effective mental health and wellbeing tool'
 - NZAC members are 'valued as qualified professionals'
 - 75% of NZAC member agree the Association is 'doing a good job'
